

Feed back from AGNs: molecular outflows

Chiara Feruglio (IRAM, F)

I will review our current knowledge of massive molecular outflows from AGN and their role in the shaping of massive galaxies.

I will discuss future perspectives both from ground based interferometry and from space based far-infrared missions.